07/02/2022 11:39	Mark Goddard	CEO	Gamer Wager	mark@gamerwa	There is a vast amount of industry knowledge and hard work ethics within the SCCG team. Over the past two years working along side Stephen Crystal and his team our business has flourished. We have managed to be "placed at the table" with industry juggernauts that would normally take a lot of work to even get a foot in the door with. I cannot recommend working with these guys enough.
07/02/2022 12:46	Mark Stebbings	Group COO	Betfred	mark.stebbing@	Since meeting SCCG founder and CEO Stephen Crystal nearly 4 years ago, despite the global pandemic SCCG have been nothing but diligent and professional in assisting Betfred with our sports wagering market access efforts in the USA, I would recommend SCCG to any worldwide gaming company looking for assistance in gaining access into the US market place.

07/02/2022 13:10	Lucas Mondelo	Brazil Business [SCCG Managem	lucas@mondelo.	Steve and I had been in touch for years before I started at SCCG. I was already an industry veteran by the time we started to work together. One day I simply offered my services and I repeat now the sincere words I said to Steve that day: I admire what you do at SCCG. The global outreach of the consultancy means that deals can happen fast and the same applies to capitalization. As an outsider, I saw SCCG as a place where good ideas could happen fast, fueled by immense expertise, network and capacity to keep up with an ever-changing world. Being close to Steve and seeing more of the inside of SCCG proved that my suspicions were correct: the SCCG family is this and much more. My only regret is this: not having said 'Steve I want to be your guy in Brazil' earlier than I actually did. SCCG is a case of proof that the combination of expertise, transparency and a good network simply can't fail. As Steve often says, this is a 'best in class' combination

Beyond his deep gaming knowledge, he is organized, honest, and innovative. It has been a pleasure watching Stephen's gaming platform diversify in ways I never imagined. He is certainly my go-to gaming expert in the U.S. and beyond.
